1969 WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS

1970 Guide for Press, Radio and Television

ABOUT THE COVER—Mickey Mantle said recently, "As far as I'm concerned, Hank Aaron is the best ballplayer of my era. He is to Baseball of the last 15 years what Joe DiMaggio was before him."

Barring injury, Aaron this year will become only the third player in the last 45 years to reach 3000 career base hits. The last player to reach this milestone was Stan Musial in 1958.

1969 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Enroute to their World Series victory over the Baltimore Orioles, the New York Mets swept Atlanta, three games to none, in the first National League Championship Series in history.

Atlanta qualified for the series by becoming the first Western Division champion, playing .769 ball in September and clinching the title Sept. 30 vs Cincinnati. New York, meanwhile, won 100 games to become the Eastern champion.

In the first post-season game at Atlanta Stadium since the Braves moved there in 1966, the Mets scored five runs in the eighth inning against 23-game winner Phil Niekro enroute to a 9-5 victory in Game 1 Oct. 4. The following day, six Atlanta pitchers couldn't stop an 11-6 Mets victory.

In the final game Oct. 6 at Shea Stadium, the Braves jumped on New York starter Gary Gentry for two runs and reliever Nolan Ryan for two more, but Wayne Garrett's two-run homer in the fifth inning put the Mets ahead for good.

New York then met American League champion Baltimore in the World Series and after losing the opening game, won four straight from the Orioles to win the Series in one of the most startling upsets in the long history of the classic. Baltimore had defeated Minnesota in the American League Championship Series.

Braves Caught Cubs in Triple Play

The Braves triple play last Aug. 29 vs. Chicago at Atlanta Stadium was their first, home or away, since the club moved to Atlanta. Don Kessinger and Glenn Beckert led off the game against Pat Jarvis with singles, but Billy Williams grounded to Orlando Cepeda at first, then Kessinger was chased down between third base and home plate and Beckert between second and third.

May 1 is 50th Anniversary of Longest Game

May 1, 1970 is the fiftieth anniversary of the longest baseball game ever played in the major leagues. Back on May 1, 1920, the Boston Braves and the Brooklyn Robins played a 26-inning, 1-1 tie at Braves Field in Boston.

Incredibly, both starting pitchers went the distance. When it was over, Joe Oeschger of Boston had to learn to brush his teeth lefthanded, and Leon Cadore of Brooklyn spent 36 hours in bed.

The Braves in the World Series

1914—Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' 'Miracle Braves,' who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the series, with a homer, triple, three doubles and a single for the series.

1948—Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves under Billy Southworth won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957—Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lou Burdette won three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958—New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the classic. Hank Bauer led the Yanks with ten hits and eight runs batted in, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two victories and Lou Burdette one for the Braves.

Hank Aaron

Henry Louis Aaron. Born Feb. 5, 1934 at Mobile, Ala. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 180. Graduated from Josephine Allen Institute, Mobile, Ala., 1951. Married Barbara Lucas, Oct. 3, 1952. Has four children: Gail, born Nov. 5, 1953; Hank, Jr., Mar. 10, 1957; Larry, Dec. 15, 1957; Dorinda, Feb. 5, 1962. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Signed by Boston Braves scout Dewey Griggs after Braves purchased his contract for $10,000 from Indianapolis Clowns of Negro American League, June 14, 1952.

"Cobb, Musial, Speaker, Wagner, Collins, Lajoie and Waner" . . . and soon, "Aaron," joining the elite corps of Baseball's greatest hit-makers, the 3000 Hit Club. Needing the number on his back, 44, Aaron should reach 3000 sometime in May. He had 56 hits through the end of May last season, 45 for the same period in 1968 . . . Third behind Willie McCovey and Tom Seaver in the Most Valuable Player balloting for last year, Aaron moved from eighth to third on the all-time home run list and reached 550 homers, 500 doubles, 90 triples, 5,000 total bases, 9,000 at bats, 2,950 hits and 12 grand slam homers . . . Hank set four major league records, with his 14th, and 14th consecutive year, with 100 or more runs, his eighth year to lead the league in total bases, and his 14th year with 300 or more total bases . . . He is tied for a fifth major league record, with 13 years playing 150 or more games . . . He set an NL record with his 15th year with 100 or more extra bases on long hits, and holds two other NL marks by hitting a home run in every league park nine years (1954-60, 1963 and 1966) and going to bat 600 or more times for ten years . . . He tied two NL marks last year, his sixth with 40 or more homers and his 15th in a row with 20 or more . . . Hank homered in each game of the Championship Series with New York, and his .364 World Series batting average is the third highest in history among players with 50 or more Series at bats . . . He has now hit a grand slam each year since the club moved to Atlanta, except 1968 . . . Most Valuable Player in the National League in 1957 and Sporting News NL Player of the Year in 1956, Aaron was voted to the NL starting lineup for the All-Star Game in 1957, 1958, 1959 (both games), 1960 (both games), 1963, 1965, 1966, 1967, 1968 and 1969 . . . He was voted Most Valuable Player in the South Atlantic League in 1953 and Most Outstanding Rookie in the Northern League the year before . . . He was the Braves MVP in 1954, 1955, 1957, 1959 and 1967, and elected Captain prior to Opening Night, 1969 . . . He became a Milwaukee regular in the outfield during Spring Training, 1954, when Bobby Thomson fractured an ankle March 13th . . .

Aaron later suffered a broken ankle himself Sept. 5, 1954 and missed the remainder of his rookie season . . . Hank received the Gold Glove Award as the league's top right fielder in 1958, 1959 and 1960 . . . He is nearing his 100th Atlanta Stadium homer, after a total of "only" 185 in 12 seasons at County Stadium in Milwaukee. He already has 82 at Atlanta Stadium . . . He has 75 homers against one club, Chicago, and has hit more homers on the road than at home, 287 to 267 . . . He and Eddie Mathews set the major league record for home runs by teammates with 863 (421 by Aaron, 442 by Mathews) in 1954-66, breaking the record of 793 by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig . . . On June 8, 1961, Mathews, Aaron, Joe Adcock and Frank Thomas set a major league record with consecutive homers in the seventh inning at Cincinnati . . . In 1962, two players homered into the distant centerfield bleachers at the Polo Grounds in New York on successive days. Only Babe Ruth and Adcock reached those seats with homers in earlier years. Lou Brock, rookie Chicago centerfielder, achieved the feat against Al Jackson of the Mets June 17. Aaron followed the very next night with a blast to the same bleachers off Jay Hook . . . Hank hit three homers in a game June 21, 1959 and has had two in a game 36 times, five hits in a game three times, and four hits in a game 42 times. He had batting streaks of 15 or more games ten times—25 games in 1956 and 1962, 22 in 1959, 19 in 1960, 18 in 1967, 16 in 1964 and 1965, and 15 in 1957 (twice) and 1958 . . . Aaron hit his 500th home run July 14, 1968 vs. Mike McCormick of San Francisco . . . Aug. 23, 1968 was another big date for him, when Atlanta fans honored him on "Hank Aaron Night" . . . Hank was batting .467 for the Indianapolis Clowns when owner

Only two players in the last 45 years, Waner in 1942 and Musial in 1958, have reached 3000 hits. Musial made it in his 17th major league season, earlier than any other member of the club. Aaron, starting his 17th season, could tie Musial's mark.

Syd Pollock offered his contract to the Boston Braves in a letter to Farm Director John Mullen . . . Ed Scott, Clowns scout, signed Hank Nov. 20, 1951 . . . Hank's pinch-hitting average is .250, five-for-20, with one pinch homer, July 8, 1962. Batting for Lee Maye at Chicago, he hit a three-run homer in the ninth inning off Dick Ellsworth . . . Hank leads all active players in batting average, hits, runs batted in and doubles . . . Hank signed his first $100,000 contract Feb. 23, 1967.

AARON IS 11 HOMERS OFF RUTH'S PACE

Hank Aaron, considered the best bet among active players to reach Babe Ruth's record 714 home runs, is in terms of comparable age just 11 homers, and about two months, off Ruth's pace.

Aaron's latest homer, No. 554, came last September when Hank was 35 years old. Ruth also hit his 554th at the age of 35, in August of 1930.

Ruth, who was born Feb. 6, 1895 (Aaron's birthday, by coincidence, is Feb. 5) had at the time of No. 554 played one season more than Hank. Ruth was 19, Hank 20, at the time of their big league debuts.

Because of today's 162-game seasons and Ruth's five years as a Boston Red Sox pitcher, however, Hank has played in 491 more games, and gone to bat 2924 more times, than Ruth had at the end of the 1930 season.

By averaging 32 home runs for five years, Aaron could equal Ruth's 714 home runs.

Babe Ruth's Last 161 Homers, Nos. 554-714

Although Ruth hit 49 in 1930, only the last 12 are shown.

Tommie Aaron

OF - 1B

Tommie Lee Aaron. Born Aug. 5, 1939 at Mobile, Ala. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 200. Graduated from Central High School, Mobile, 1958. Married Carolyn Davenport, Oct. 13, 1962. Has two children: Etren, age 7, by previous marriage; Tommie, Sept. 27, 1967. Lives in Mobile. Acquired—Signed by Scout Hugh Wise, May 28, 1958.

Although he got into fewer games last season than in any of his 12 years in professional baseball, Tommie has now spent the last two full seasons in the big leagues . . . An all-star first baseman in the Texas League in 1961, Tommie spent all of 1962 in the majors with Milwaukee . . . He had four hits in a game May 25, 1962 . . . He started three double plays in a game at first base May 27, 1962 to tie a major league record . . . He hit a pinch-homer July 12, 1962 vs. St. Louis . . . And he hit his only big league grand slam homer Aug. 4, 1962 vs. Philadelphia . . . Tommie hit the first Atlanta Stadium home run Apr. 9, 1965 in a pre-season game vs. Detroit . . . In 1967 Tommie was voted Most Valuable Player in the International League . . . June was the only month last season when Tommie saw any appreciable action . . . He hit his only homer, and his first ever in regular season play at Atlanta stadium, June 8 . . . He singled in Rico Carty with the winning run in the first game of a doubleheader vs. Houston June 16 . . . He went to bat only eight times and was hitless after the All-Star break . . . He and older brother Hank are from a family of seven children, four sons and three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Aaron of Mobile.

Bob Aspromonte

Inf.

No. 14

Robert Thomas Aspromonte. Born June 19, 1938 at Brooklyn, N. Y. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 185. Graduated from Lafayette High School, Brooklyn, 1953. Attended Long Island University, Greenvale, N. Y., and New York University, Single. Lives in Houston, Tex. Acquired—Traded by Houston Astros to Atlanta for infielder Orlando Martinez, Dec. 4, 1968.

Bob will reach a big milestone early in the 1970 season. He needs just one hit for No. 1000 of his big league career . . . After seven years as a Houston regular, he went to bat only 198 times last season . . . However, he won four games with timely hits, two of them against his former Astro teammates . . . Atlanta won 15 out of 18 games against his old club . . . On Sept. 13, Bob walked with the bases loaded in the 13th inning to score the winning run in a big Phil Niekro-Larry Dierker duel . . . Bob took over as a regular in June during an 0-for-39 streak by Cleto Boyer, and ran off a nine-game hitting streak . . . On June 20, he and Rico Carty hit back-to-back homers in the ninth inning against San Francisco . . . Bob followed with another ninth-inning homer July 15 at Cincinnati which tied the game after the Reds led at one time, 6-0 . . . Then in the final game of the season Bob had the first pinch-homer of his career, Oct. 2 vs. Cincinnati . . . He has had five hits in a game twice, four hits in a game six times, and has six grand slam homers . . . From the same Brooklyn high school as Sandy Koufax, Bob was signed for the Dodgers by Al Campanis and pinch-hit for Brooklyn as a 17-year-old . . . In his first full game for Los Angeles he batted four-for-five against Milwaukee, with a tenth-inning homer that won the game . . . He was drafted by Houston Oct. 10, 1961 . . . He set National League records with 57 consecutive errorless games at third base in 1962 and only 11 errors and a .973 fielding average at third base in 1964 . . . He was Houston's first batter, and had the Astros' first hit, run scored and stolen base . . . His brother Ken will manage Wichita this year.

Johnnie B. Baker, Jr. Born June 15, 1949 at Riverside, Calif. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 187. Graduated from Riverside Polytechnic High School, Del Campo, Calif., 1967. Attended American River Jr. College, Sacramento, Calif. Single. Lives in Carmichael, Calif. Acquired—Signed by Scout Bill Wight, Aug. 23, 1967.

Although he wasn't drafted until the twenty-fifth round of the June, 1967, free agent draft, Baker signed for a Braves bonus, batted .342 at Greenwood in his first full professional season, and played briefly with the Atlanta club twice, at the end of the '68 season and for three games last June, all before his twentieth birthday . . . He was an all-around athlete in high school—centerfielder in baseball, halfback in football, forward in basketball and sprinter and broad jumper in track . . . He experienced a "sophomore slump" last season after spending the off-season in Marine Reserve basic training.

Stanley Braudus Bell. Born Sept. 9, 1947 at Atlanta, Ga. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 195. Graduated from Headland High School, East Point, Ga., 1965. Attended Manatee Jr. College, Bradenton, Fla., and Georgia State College, Atlanta. Married Valerie Marie Haddad, Oct. 5, 1969. No children. Lives in Sandy Springs, Ga. Acquired—Signed by Scout Zack Taylor, May 10, 1967.

Mack Jones, Stan Bell and Jim Nash are all products of Atlanta sandlots who have signed Braves contracts, but Stan is the only one of the three who is still looking for his first action in the big leagues . . . Scouts were watching Stan as he won 30 and lost only nine at Headland High School and then played in the Georgia High School Association all-star game at Atlanta Stadium co-sponsored by the Braves in 1965 . . . He was drafted by Washington in June, 1965; Detroit in January, 1966; and Cincinnati in June, 1966 before the team he wanted, Atlanta, picked him No. 2 in the January, 1967, Special Phase . . . By then Stan was completing a two-year career as an All-American pitcher at Manatee Junior College, where he was 19-1 . . . He also came under the scrutiny of Zack Taylor, then Atlanta's ace scout in Florida . . . Almost winless in his first pro season, Stan reversed himself with three shutouts and a league-leading .900 percentage at Greenwood in 1968 . . . Last year in a higher classification, he started 23 games and pitched a one-hitter against Dallas-Fort Worth.

Clete Boyer

No. 6

Cletis Leroy Boyer. Born Feb. 8, 1937 at Cossville, Mo. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 183. Graduated from Alba, Mo., High School, 1955. Married Marilyn Sue King, June 9, 1955. Has four children: Valerie, born June 3, 1956; Stephanie, July 17, 1959; Mickey, Nov. 27, 1963; Colette, Sept. 14, 1967. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Traded by New York Yankees to Atlanta for outfielder Bill Robinson and pitcher Chi Chi Olivo, Nov. 29, 1966.

Boyer made a big comeback last season, playing 141 games at third base, batting .250 for his highest average since coming to the Braves in 1967, hitting two home runs in a game twice, and contributing six game-winning hits . . . He missed the last half of the 1968 season after he was decked July 12 by Don Drysdale . . . For the second time in his three years in the NL, Clete led the league's third basemen last year in fielding with .965 . . . He also led in 1967 with .970 . . . In seven years as a New York Yankee, he never led the AL third basemen in fielding, always losing that title to Brooks Robinson of Baltimore . . . According to The Baseball Encyclopedia, Robinson is first (with .971) and Boyer fifth (with .967) in fielding average for third basemen over the entire history of the game . . . It was a wacky year for Clete. His homer May 26 vs. St. Louis started mascot Chief Noc-A-Homa on his usual home run dance, but then the Chief's teepee caught on fire . . . Then an exotic dancer ran onto the field Aug. 31 as Clete prepared to hit against Chicago. After the dancer was ushered from the field, Clete singled to score a run . . . Clete went 0-for-39 at the plate between May 28 and June 28, then batted .339 in July . . . In the first of many frustrations dealt the Cincinnati Reds by Atlanta, he walked to force in the winning run Apr. 13 in the first game of a doubleheader, then made three spectacular fielding plays in the bottom half of the inning to save the 1-0 victory . . . Clete is from baseball's first family. Ken was the Most Valuable Player in the National League in 1964 and retired after 15 years last season . . . Cloyd is the New York Yankees' minor league pitching instructor . . . This year Ken will manage at Little Rock, when Lennie, last of the Boyers in Baseball, plays third base . . . Clete, last member of the great 1961 Yankees team still playing, was originally signed by Joe Bowman for Kansas City May 31, 1955 . . . He went to New York in a big trade Feb. 19, 1957 . . . Kansas City traded Boyer, Art Ditmar, Bobby Shantz, Jack McMahan and Wayne Belardi for Walter Coleman, Tom Morgan, Maury McDermott, Billy Hunter, Milt Graff and Irv Noren . . . Commissioner Ford Frick ruled that Boyer had to remain with Kansas City until June 4, 1957 to complete terms of his Athletics bonus . . . Clete has played in more World Series games than any other active player, and made 65 assists in Series play, a record for third basemen . . . During his years in Yankee pinstripes, New York lost to Pittsburgh in 1960, defeated Cincinnati in 1961 and San Francisco in 1962, and lost to Los Angeles in 1963 and St. Louis in 1964 . . . Clete's seventh-inning homer in the first game of 1962 broke a 2-2 tie and gave Whitey Ford his tenth Series victory . . . Clete tied an AL record by grounding into only five double plays in 1963 . . . He has hit two homers in a game six times and four hits in a game six times . . . He had two 15-game hitting streaks in 1966 and 96 runs batted in for Atlanta in 1967 . . . He has five grand slam homers, two in the National League.

Jimmy Woodrow Britton. Born Oct. 21, 1948 in St. Louis, Mo. Bats and throws left. 6-2, 195. Graduated from Richmond Heights High School, Maplewood, Mo., 1967. Attended Meramec Junior College, Kirkwood, Mo. Single. Lives in Maplewood. Acquired—Signed by Scout Pat Patterson, Aug. 25, 1967.

Britton will attend spring training while on the Military List . . . When rosters were "frozen" last October, he was on U. S. Army active duty . . . The original Atlanta winter roster listed two Jim Brittons, but the oldest went to the Montreal Expos in the trade for Larry Jaster . . . Jimmy combined with Jim Sanders, pitching four innings to Sanders' three, for a no-hitter in the Texas League in 1968. It was a seven-inning second game of a doubleheader for Shreveport . . . A three-sport star in high school, Jimmy was labeled by scouts "The best pitching prospect in St. Louis in 1966" and he was Atlanta's twenty-first draft choice in June, 1967.

Oscar Lee Brown. Born Feb. 8, 1946 at Long Beach, Calif. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 175. Graduated from Polytechnic High School, Long Beach, 1964. Single. Lives in Compton, Calif. Acquired—Signed by Scout Harry Minor, June 15, 1966.

The brother of Ollie Brown, San Diego's leading hitter last year, and Willie Brown, former Los Angeles Rams flankerback who is now University of Southern California backfield coach, Oscar reached the big leagues last year for seven games . . . He was Atlanta's first Special Phase draft choice in 1966 and led the Northwest League in hitting in his first professional season . . . He had a mediocre year in 1967, however, and was loaned to Williamsport of the New York-Pennsylvania League in June, 1968 . . . He hit .343 in 50 games there and made the all-league team . . . Oscar led the Arizona Instructional League last winter with a .357 average.

Rico Carty

Ricardo Adolfo Jacobo Carty. Born Sept. 1, 1940 at San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 190. Graduated from San Esteban High School, San Pedro de Macoris, 1957. Married Gladys Ramirez de Jacobo, Feb. 1, 1964. Has three children: Iraida, born Nov. 5, 1964; Rico, Jr., Nov. 8, 1965; Indira, Jan. 21, 1967. Lives in San Pedro de Macoris. Acquired—Signed by Scout Ted McGlew, Dec. 24, 1959.

Carty hopes to have in 1970 an injury-free, 300-plus season for the first time since 1966 . . . He had his worst season in the majors in 1967, missed all of 1968 after he was stricken with tuberculosis, and last season while returning to the lineup after 163 days in a hospital went through three shoulder separations and leg cramps . . . He was out of the Atlanta lineup 58 games . . . The first shoulder separation occurred Apr. 5 in a pre-season game and Rico was placed on the Disabled List on Opening Day . . . He didn't go to bat for the first time until May 2 . . . He again dislocated the shoulder May 18, and a third time on June 29 . . . Despite all the problems, Carty was the hitting spark as Atlanta won 20 of its last 27 games. Rico batted .390 in September . . . He also batted .409 as a pinch-hitter, hit a pinch-homer May 16 at Montreal, and had five game-winning hits . . . His sacrifice fly Sept. 30 vs. Cincinnati won the division-clinching game . . . Rico had 25 runs batted in over the last month of the season . . . Although he didn't qualify for the batting championship, he improved his lifetime average by 11 points . . . He hit 13 of his 16 homers at Atlanta Stadium . . . Four of his homers won games . . . His 16-game hitting streak, June 13-27, was the longest of the season for a Brave . . . Rico has now had two homers in a game five times, five hits in a game twice, and four hits in a game seven times . . . He had a 17-game hitting streak in 1966 . . . He was the all-star catcher in the Northwest League in 1962 and an all-star outfielder the next year in the Texas League . . . As an NL rookie in 1964, Carty was runner-up to Roberto Clemente for the batting title and second in the "Rookie of the Year" balloting to Richie Allen . . . Rico was stricken with tuberculosis during spring training in 1968 . . . He once hit two homers in one time at bat. Batting for Toronto at Little Rock in 1963, he slammed the first pitch thrown him over the left field wall. The umpire, however, ruled he had called time. Batting over, Carty homered again.

No. 52

Robert Joseph Castiglione. Born Aug. 8, 1945 at Irvington, N. J. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 175. Graduated from Union, N. J., High School, 1962. Graduated from New York University, Bachelor of Science in Economics, 1966. Married Marilyn Hamm, Nov. 4, 1967. No children. Lives in Union, N. J. Acquired—Drafted by Atlanta from Denver, Minnesota Twins organization, Nov. 28, 1967.

Castiglione had to be listed on the Atlanta spring training roster in 1968 after he was drafted from the Minnesota farm system . . . He earned it this year after an impressive season as a starter at Shreveport . . . The Braves knew Bob was a sore-armed pitcher when they drafted him but hoped he could recover. He was not, however, kept on the Atlanta roster in 1968 . . . Minnesota chose to keep the $8,000 Atlanta paid for him rather than take Bob back . . . Bob was a Most Valuable Player choice as a New Jersey high school pitcher and at New York University . . . He pitched Pierre, S. D., to the collegiate Basin League title in 1965 . . . In his first professional season, 1966, he struck out 21 batters in one game and led the league with 174 for the year, proceeded to the Florida Instructional League where he was 6-1, and then continued south to the Puerto Rican League where he fanned Orlando Cepeda three times in one game.

Orlando Cepeda

No. 30

Orlando Manuel Cepeda. Born Sept. 17, 1937 at Ponce, Puerto Rico. Bats and throws right. 6-2, 205. Married Ana Hilda Pino Valasquez, Dec. 4, 1960. Has one child, Orlando Xavier, born Mar. 28, 1966. Lives in Guaynabo, P. R. Acquired—Traded by St. Louis Cardinals to Atlanta for catcher Joe Torre, Mar. 17, 1969.

In his last three seasons, Cepeda has guided St. Louis to two pennants and Atlanta to a division championship . . . Getting the Braves off to four wins in their first five games, their fastest start in ten years, he had the game-winning hits in three of those victories . . . He led the team for the season with 15 game-winners . . . He hit the fifth grand slam of his career Sept. 26 vs. San Diego . . . On four other occasions, Cepeda homers won games . . . He also closed a revolving door at first base for Atlanta, becoming the first player since the team moved to Atlanta to play at least 100 games at first base . . . He was sidelined for five days after he was beamed by Bill Stoneman May 16 at Montreal . . . In June, after complaining of blurred vision, he experimented for one game only with eyeglasses . . . He had batting streaks of 11, nine and eight games . . . Orlando really picked on the expansion teams, batting .459 against Montreal and driving in 14 runs against San Diego . . . He had four homers and 10 runs batted in against St. Louis . . . Cepeda was unanimous choice for Rookie of the Year in 1958, and unanimous choice for Most Valuable Player in 1967 . . . Frank Robinson of the 1956 Reds and Willie McCovey of the 1959 Giants were the only other unanimous Rookie of the Year choices, and no other player has ever been unanimous MVP . . . He was named National League Player of the Year by the Sporting News in 1967, and was the first baseman on the Sporting News NL All-Star team in 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1967 . . . He was voted to the NL starting team for the All-Star game in 1959, 1962 (both games), 1964 and 1967 . . . He needs just 98 hits for 2,000, and last year he reached 300 career home runs . . . Perucho Cepeda, his father, was a legendary baseball hero in Puerto Rico . . . Orlando had knee surgery after the 1964 season and was on the Disabled List, May 7-August 12, 1965 . . . He was traded to St. Louis May 8, 1966, with St. Louis sending Ray Sadecki to San Francisco . . . His 142 runs batted in for the Giants in 1961 has been exceeded only once since by an NL batter, Tommy Davis with 153 in 1962 . . . Among active players, only Mays, Aaron, Banks, Robinson and Killebrew have hit more homers than Cepeda, and Aaron, Mays, Banks, Robinson and Kaline have driven in more runs . . . Orlando has never hit three homers in a game, but has had two in a game 13 times, five hits in a game three times and four hits in a game 18 times . . . He had a 17-game batting streak in 1963, a 16-game streak in 1967, and 15-game streaks in 1960, 1961 and 1963 . . . He has two pinch-hit home runs.

Bob Didier

C

Robert Daniel Didier. Born Feb. 16, 1949 at Hattiesburg, Miss. Switchhitter, throws right. 6-0, 188. Graduated from Glen Oaks High School, Baton Rouge, La., 1967. Attended Mesa, Ariz., Community College. Married Kitty Thompson, Oct. 25, 1969. No children. Lives in Baton Rouge. Acquired—Signed by Farm Director Jim Fanning, June 10, 1967.

Three events during spring training—the trading of Joe Torre, the two-week-long retirement of Bob Tillman, and an injury to Walt Hriniak—made Bob Didier the No. 1 catcher for Atlanta . . . He caught nearly 300 innings of knuckleball pitching from Phil Niekro and Hoyt Wilhelm, but almost led the league's catchers in fielding, losing the title to Houston's John Edwards, .9942 to .9941 . . . He was the catcher on the league all-rookie team and received two votes for Rookie of the Year . . . Although he was the 1968 Western Carolinas League all-star catcher, Bob had low batting averages in the minors. Nevertheless, he led the Atlanta club in spring training with a .357 average, then batted .366 in July and had four hits in a game

Sept. 17 at Los Angeles . . . In high school, Bob quarterbacked Glen Oaks High to the 1967 Louisiana state championship . . . He was also an All-District basketball player and twice an All-State catcher in baseball . . . His father was a Louisiana State football coach and a Braves scout, but is now Director of Scouting for the Montreal Expos . . . Bob's great-great-grandfather came to Louisiana from France . . . His father, Mel, and five of Mel's brothers played college football, and five of the six were minor league baseball players . . . Bob was Atlanta's fourth choice in the June, 1967, free agent draft.

Married Sandra Jean Wigman, June 15, 1968. No children. Lives in Arcadia, Calif. Acquired—Drafted by Atlanta from Vancouver, Oakland Athletics organization, Dec. 2, 1968.

Considered one of the prize selections in the 1968 winter draft of minor league players, Evans "went north" with Atlanta and remained until he was optioned to Shreveport Apr. 28, was recalled for 12 days in June, then returned again in August . . . While in the Oakland farm system, Darrell was the Gulf Coast League Player of the Year in 1967 . . . He was signed for the Athletics by Bob Zuk, now an Atlanta scout . . . He played baseball and basketball at Muir High and Pasadena City College, and made All-California in both sports while in junior college . . . He showed power with seven homers in 59 games of AAA ball last year . . . Darrell's mother and his aunt were professional softball players for a team in Pasadena . . . During a one-week period last June when he was a regular at third base for Atlanta, Darrell twice had two hits in a game.

Tony Gonzalez

Andres Antonio Gonzalez. Born Aug. 28, 1936 at Camaguey, Cuba. Bats left and throws right. 5-9, 170. Attended Muron High School, Camaguey. Married Rosaura Feal, Nov. 18, 1956. Has one child, Arse, age 15, by previous marriage. Lives in Huntingdon Valley, Pa. Acquired—Traded by San Diego Padres to Atlanta for catcher Walt Hrinjak, infielder Van Kelly and outfielder Andy Finlay, June 12, 1969.

After he was traded by San Diego Gonzalez tripled in his first at bat for Atlanta, and homered twice in his first home game as a Brave . . . All of his 12 homers were for or against Atlanta . . . His two-run homer for the Padres beat the Braves 4-3 on May 1 . . . Against his old Padres teammates July 18, Tony blasted a grand slam . . . Signed for Cincinnati by Tony Pacheco in 1957, Gonzalez was traded to Philadelphia along with Lee Walls for Harry Anderson, Wally Post and Fred Hopke June 15, 1960 . . . He was a nine-year Phillies regular until he was selected by San Diego in the expansion draft Oct. 14, 1968 . . . Tony has a distinguished fielding record. The Baseball Encyclopedia says his lifetime .987 average is the sixth best in history by an outfielder . . . He fielded 1,000 in 1962 . . . He and Stan Musial are the only players since 1900 to lead the league's outfielders in fielding three times, Gonzalez achieving that feat in 1962, 1964 and 1967 . . . He played 205 consecutive errorless games from Aug. 31, 1961 to June 26, 1963, a major league record since broken by Don Demeter . . . He had his 1,000th hit

Sept. 12, 1967 against St. Louis . . . He has two career grand slams, one pinch homer July 9, 1967 vs. St. Louis, had a 17-game hitting streak in 1962, and has had two homers in a game five times and four hits in a game 11 times.

Garry Hill

Garry Alton Hill. Born Nov. 3, 1946 at Spindale, N. C. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 195. Graduated from Garinger High School, Charlotte, N. C., 1965. Attended University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. Married Sandra Jean Prophet, June 14, 1969. No children. Lives in Charlotte. Acquired—Signed by Scout Myron Hayworth, June 13, 1967.

Held in high regard by the Braves, Garry remained on the Atlanta roster until June of last season and was a surprise starter in an important game with Chicago June 12 . . . An Al Spangler homer was Garry's downfall as he left the game after two innings, and was optioned to Richmond ten days later . . . Hill was the Braves' first Special Phase draft choice in June, 1967 . . . He had been an All-Atlantic Coast Conference pitcher at the University of North Carolina, where he was 8-0 in 1967 . . . He also had an outstanding American Legion career in Charlotte . . . Before he was signed by Atlanta, he was drafted by Washington in June of 1965 . . . He almost missed all of 1968 because of military service and an injury in September.

Thomas Ross House. Born Apr. 29, 1947 at Seattle, Wash. Bats and throws left. 5-11, 185. Graduated from Nogales High School, La Puente, Calif., 1965. Attended University of Southern California, Los Angeles. Married Karren Helen Zwimfer, Dec. 16, 1967. Has one child, Brittany Lynn, born Feb. 16, 1969. Lives in La Puente. Acquired—Signed by Scout Johnny Moore, June 15, 1967.

After his second year of pitching in AAA ball, House was to undergo knee surgery over the winter . . . As a University of Southern California undergraduate, Tom pitched an 11-inning two-hitter against Washington State and was voted to the All-Pacific 8 Conference team . . . He also had an outstanding Legion career . . . He was previously drafted in June, 1965, by the Chicago Cubs, and was Atlanta's third choice in June, 1967.

Sonny Jackson

SS

No. 16

Roland Thomas Jackson. Born July 9, 1944 at Washington, D. C. Bats left and throws right. 5-9, 155. Graduated from Montgomery Blair High School, Silver Spring, Md., 1962. Married Shirley Johnson, July 21, 1964. Has one child, Tracey Lynette, born Sept. 2, 1965. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Traded by Houston Astros to Atlanta for pitcher Denny Lemaster and infielder Denis Menke, Oct. 8, 1967.

In the two years since he was traded by Houston to Atlanta, Jackson has played only 203 games because of recurring leg and ankle injuries . . . That means injuries have permitted Sonny to be ready to play shortstop only about 63 per cent of the time . . . In 1968, he suffered a pulled muscle July 7 and missed 11 days, then re-injured the muscle July 30 and missed all of August that year . . . Last season after getting off to a good start he injured a hamstring muscle May 31, then suffered a bruised hand June 24 and a sprained ankle July 4, and then re-injured the hamstring muscle Sept. 13 . . . He was signed for Houston by Scout Billy Jurgens June 18, 1962 as he turned down a college football scholarship . . . He was an all-league shortstop in the Texas League in 1964 and in the Pacific Coast League in 1965 . . . His 49 stolen bases at Houston in 1966 set the league record for rookies, and he led the league that year in sacrifice hits . . . He had five hits in a game Sept. 16, 1966 vs. Philadelphia . . . His speed and the deep fences at the Astrodome have helped Sonny hit four inside-the-park homers at Houston, one of them last April 17 . . . His only home run to clear a National League fence came in his first game for the Braves in Atlanta Stadium, Apr. 12, 1968 vs. Cincinnati . . . He had four hits in a game twice last year, and started off the year with a 12-game hitting streak before being stopped Apr. 20 at San Diego.

Pat Jarvis

Robert Patrick Jarvis. Born Mar. 18, 1941 at Carlyle, Ill. Bats and throws right. 5-10, 180. Graduated from Carlyle High School, 1959. Attended Murray, Ky., State College. Married Dena Zimmerman, Feb. 3, 1962. Has two children: Kent, born Feb. 24, 1963; Keith, Nov. 29, 1967. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Traded by Detroit Tigers to Milwaukee for pitcher Bruce Brubaker, Oct. 14, 1963.

Although he was supplanted by Phil Niekro as the "ace" of the Atlanta pitching staff and his earned run average soared last year, Jarvis still won 13 important victories for the Braves and had some big games, including his 11 strikeouts, a career high, May 10 at Philadelphia . . . He ended the year winning three out of his last four decisions, including a three-hitter Sept. 24 vs. Houston . . . His only shutout of the year came July 20 vs. San Diego, putting Atlanta into undisputed first place in the division for the All-Star break. Play was halted during the eighth inning of that game for a moment of silence honoring the first landing on the moon . . . Pat was 3-0 against San Diego and ran his record vs. Houston to 9-1 . . . He also has an 8-3 career mark vs. Philadelphia . . . Growing up in Carlyle, Ill., Pat rode broncs in rodeos and once was kicked in the face by a bull. He had to undergo corrective surgery on his nose in 1968 . . . He was a track and baseball star at Murray State College . . . In July, 1960, Detroit Tiger Scout Joe Mathes was in Carlyle to scout a player but read in the newspaper that an all-star game was to be played that night. He went to the game, saw Jarvis strike out 18, and signed him instead . . . In 1963 Pat and Denny McLain had a combined total of 342 strikeouts for Duluth-Superior . . . Pat was 14-6 and led the league with 185 strikeouts, McLain was 13-2, leading the league in percentage, and had 157 strikeouts . . . Pat won six straight games when called from Richmond in 1966, and has been the Braves Opening Night pitcher the past two years . . . He has four career shutouts and two two-hitters.

Larry Jaster

Larry Edward Jaster. Born Jan. 13, 1944 at Midland, Mich. Bats and throws left. 6-3, 195. Graduated from Midland High School, 1962. Attended Northwest Institute, Midland, and Michigan State University, East Lansing. Married Peggy Louise Johnson, Dec. 27, 1964. Has two children: Scott Edward born Aug. 29, 1965; Kimberly Ann, May 2, 1967. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Traded by Montreal Expos to Atlanta for pitcher Jim Britton and catcher Don Johnson, Dec. 1, 1969.

Despite his 1-6 record last year at Montreal, Jaster had an 0.87 earned run average against Atlanta batters . . . He had no wins or losses against the Braves for Montreal, but while at St. Louis was 2-1 against Atlanta . . . A product of the Detroit sandlots which also produced Bill Freehan, Willie Horton, Milt Pappas and others, he pitched against the Tigers in the World Series in 1968 . . . He was, however, jolted by a Jim Northrup grand slam homer . . . Larry had two years as a Cardinal starter but was sent to the bullpen in 1968, then selected by Montreal in the expansion draft Oct. 10, 1968 . . . Larry did manage a .421 batting average for the Expos last year . . . He has a younger brother, Dan, still pitching in the St. Louis farm system . . . Larry received a reported $60,000 bonus to sign with the Cardinals in 1962 . . . In 1966, he shut out Los Angeles five times in a row, tying the record for shutouts against one club set by Grover Cleveland Alexander against Cincinnati in 1916 . . . Jaster's five shutouts of the Dodgers were consecutive, and during the stretch he allowed them only 24 hits, all singles . . . He pitched two two-hitters in 1968, May 20 vs. Los Angeles and May 31 vs. New York.

Richard Lee Kester. Born July 7, 1946 at Iola, Kan. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 180. Graduated from Owens Valley High School, Independence, Calif., 1964. Graduated from University of California at Los Angeles, Bachelor of Science in Finance, 1968. Married. No children. Lives in Independence. Acquired—Signed by Scouts Al LaMacchia and Pat Patterson, Aug. 28, 1967.

Kester's 130 strikeouts last year in the International League were three under the league high . . . Rick pitched in the major leagues in his first full year in organized baseball in 1968, and last year started 25 games at Richmond and earned two weekend trips to Atlanta, while Jim Britton and Gary Niebauer attended military drills . . . In his only appearance, Rick faced Cincinnati and was reached for a homer by Lee May . . . While he earned his Finance degree from UCLA, Rick was also a standout pitcher. He was 10-2, with 104 strikeouts and a 2.35 earned run average, as a senior . . . He was spotted by Braves scouts at an amateur tournament in Wichita, Kan. They were there to sign another player but went after Rick instead, reportedly beating the Dodgers, Yankees and Angels to him . . . His name wasn't on the June, 1967 draft list . . . He turned 21 after the deadline that year . . . Rick asked for two things, a bonus and a chance to pitch one professional game that year . . . He got both, and pitched a three-hitter vs. Little Rock for Austin in the Texas League in the final game of the 1967 season.

Has two children: Harold, Jr., born Aug. 29, 1965; Darin, Oct. 14, 1966. Lives in Orlando, Fla. Acquired—Drafted by Atlanta from Louisville, Boston Red Sox organization, Dec. 1, 1969.

A regular for parts of the 1967 and 1968 seasons at Houston, King was Atlanta's only professional draft choice last winter and is expected to help the club as a third catcher and pinch-hitter . . . He batted .300 for the first time in any league last year . . . Oklahoma City sent him to Louisville of the Boston Red Sox organization during spring training last year, with Oklahoma City and the Houston organization getting pitcher Mark Schaeffer in return . . . King was originally signed by the California Angels in 1965 and drafted by Oklahoma City from El Paso.

No. 28

Michael Ken-Wai Lum. Born Oct. 27, 1945 at Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands. Bats and throws left. 6-0, 180. Graduated from Roosevelt High School, Honolulu, 1963. Attended Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. Married Linda Douglas, July 9, 1966. No children. Lives in Atlanta, Ga. Acquired—Signed by Scout Harry Minor, June 21, 1963.

Although he could probably start in many major league outfields, Lum saw limited action with Atlanta last year behind Aaron, Alou, Carty and Gonzalez . . . Adopted by Chinese parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mun Luke Lum, as a child in Honolulu, Mike was an outstanding athlete at Roosevelt High and chose a Braves contract over a Brigham Young scholarship . . . He still attended Brigham Young one semester . . . He was an all-star outfielder in the New York-Pennsylvania League in 1964 and reached the major league club at the end of his fifth season in the organization . . . In 1968, he replaced Rico Carty, out with tuberculosis, in left field, but had to share time there with Tito Francona and Tommie Aaron . . . He hit a pinch-homer June 26, 1968 vs. Philadelphia, and had a big game on Labor Day that year at New York. He homered, singled, and threw out a runner at the plate . . . An even bigger thrill came on Opening Night last April, when his single in the bottom of the ninth drove in Sonny Jackson, who had tripled, for the winning run over San Francisco. It was the Braves' first Opening Day or Night victory since 1965 . . . He almost duplicated his heroics against the Giants with a two-out single in the eighth Sept. 11 to beat 'Frisco again . . . For the first time in his major league career, Mike had four hits in a game Oct. 2 vs. Cincinnati, last regular season game of the year . . . Although four Hawaiians have played in the major leagues, Mike is the first to represent the islands in the big leagues since they achieved statehood.

Like Jimmy Britton, McCammon is a Military List player as spring training begins at West Palm Beach . . . Mike was in Marine training at Parris Island, S. C., last October when the winter roster was drawn up . . . Before signing his first professional contract with West Palm Beach in May of 1968, Mike was a high school, American Legion and Jr. college pitching star a few miles away at Riviera Beach . . . He was Atlanta's No. 3 choice in the January, 1968, draft.

An outstanding prep pitcher and football quarterback at Spring Branch High in Houston, McQueen was Atlanta's fourth draft choice in June, 1968 and pitched in 14 games at the Rookie and AA level that year without a loss . . . Last season was almost a total loss for him as he spent all but the last month in U. S. Army training at Fort Knox, Ky., with Jim Breazeale . . . Mike had an impressive spring training before leaving for Army duty, however, and won a trip to Atlanta after his discharge . . . He was Luman Harris' choice to start the final game of the year against Cincinnati . . . He had some control problems but allowed the powerful Reds lineup only two hits through three innings.

Felix Bernardo Martinez Millan. Born Aug. 21, 1943 at Yabucoa, Puerto Rico. Bats and throws right. 5-11, 172. Graduated from Yabucoa High School, 1962. Married Mercedes Garcia, Dec. 21, 1964. No children. Lives in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico. Acquired—Drafted by Milwaukee from Dallas, Kansas City Athletics organization, Nov. 30, 1964.

The starting second baseman for the National League in last season's All-Star game, Millan doubled to drive in two runs . . . He, Billy Williams of Chicago and Matty Alou of Pittsburgh were the only National League players to appear in all their teams' games . . . Felix led the league's second basemen in fielding with .980, 15 points higher than his chief rival for All-Star honors, Glenn Beckert . . . Felix hit five homers, equaling the number he'd totaled in two previous seasons, and had his highest number of total bases in any league, but his average dropped as he walked only 34 times and went to bat 652 times, third highest in the league behind Alou and Lou Brock . . . Felix's all-out attempt to stay in the lineup every day left him worn out at the end of the season . . . He hit a grand slam home run Apr. 8 vs. San Francisco, had four hits in a game twice, and had seven game-winning hits . . . One of the real "finds" of any professional draft in the last ten years, Millan was not protected by Kansas City in 1964 and the next year was an all-league infielder for Milwaukee at Yakima . . . In 1967, he was named by Topps Gum "Minor League Player of the Year" as he guided Luman Harris' Richmond club to a pennant . . . In 1968, his rival for the second base job, Woody Woodward, was traded to Cincinnati . . . Little League made baseball available to Felix at Yabucoa, where he was one of nine children of a sugar cane factory worker . . . Felix Delgado of Kansas City signed him after his high school graduation . . . Zack Taylor, Atlanta's scout in Florida at the time, recommended that the Braves draft him off the Daytona Beach club . . . Felix had five hits in a game Aug. 11, 1968 vs. St. Louis, and has had four in a game five times . . . Felix missed 17 days of action in June, 1968, after he was hit by a pitch by Cincinnati's Clay Carroll.

Robert Vance Mitchell. Born Oct. 22, 1943 at Norristown, Pa. Bats and throws right. 6-3, 185. Graduated from Eisenhower High School, Norristown, 1961. Married Frances Peterson, Mar. 3, 1962. Has one child, Marie, born July 8, 1962. Lives in Norristown. Acquired—Purchased by Atlanta from Syracuse, New York Yankees organization, Oct. 29, 1969.

He was slowed down by injury last year, but Mitchell stole 36 bases in the Eastern League in 1967 and 42 more in the International League in 1968 . . . New York drafted him for $25,000 from Louisville of the Boston organization Dec. 2, 1968 . . . Bob was rated one of the finest high school basketball players in Norristown, Pa., history and set the district high jump record with a leap of 6-4 . . . He was originally signed for the Boston Red Sox by Charlie Wagner July 5, 1965 . . . He has played winter ball in both the Dominican League and the Venezuelan League.

Marlan T. Murphy. Born Apr. 17, 1947 at Meridian, Miss. Bats and throws right. 6-4, 200. Graduated from Southeast Lauderdale High School, Vivian, Miss., 1966. Attended East Mississippi Junior College, Scooba, Miss. Single. Lives in Meridian, Miss. Acquired—Signed by Scout Mel Didier, June 14, 1966.

Although he batted .340 for the Braves Class A farm club despite missing half the season while on National Guard active duty, Murphy was the surprise of the Braves winter roster . . . His play in the Arizona Instructional League led the Braves to add his name to the major league roster . . . Murphy was a football halfback, ran the hurdles and 200 in track, and also played baseball and basketball in high school in Mississippi . . . He made all-state in basketball.

James Edwin Nash. Born Feb. 9, 1945 at Hawthorne, Nev. Bats and throws right. 6-5, 220. Graduated from Sprayberry High School, Marietta, Ga., 1963. Attended University of Georgia, Athens. Married Merrill Horne, Sept. 2, 1966. Has one child, Jim, Jr., born Oct. 8, 1968. Lives in Marietta. Acquired—Traded by Oakland Athletics to Atlanta for outfielder Felipe Alou, Dec. 3, 1969.

As a "hometown" product, Nash was received warmly by Atlanta fans even though it was necessary to trade a longtime favorite, Felipe Alou, to get him . . . Although he was born in Nevada, Nash grew up in DeKalb and Cobb counties, just north of Atlanta, and pitched for Sprayberry High School in suburban Marietta . . . Mercer Harris, the scout who signed him, is also a metropolitan Atlanta resident . . . Nash was sent to Daytona Beach in 1963 but did not pitch there, to remain "hidden" from the draft . . . First-year players were subject to drafting at that time . . . He had excellent minor league seasons in 1964 and 1965, and when called up to Kansas City in 1966 won his first seven decisions, won 12 out of 13, and was named the AL Rookie Pitcher of the Year . . . His .923 percentage led the league . . . He has had impressive strikeout records, with 16 in a Southern League game in 1966, over 150 in a season twice in the American League, and ten or more in a game four times in 1967 and three times in 1968 . . . His big league high was 13 vs. Chicago in 1968 . . . He pitched a two-hitter May 12, 1967 vs. Minnesota . . .

Nash continued

Jim was not an outstanding athlete at Sprayberry High, and signed a big league contract for a modest bonus . . . He and Felix Millan were together on the Daytona Beach roster at spring training in 1964 . . . Arm trouble took him out of the A's rotation last year.

No. 31

Gary Wayne Neibauer. Born Oct. 29, 1944 at Billings, Mont. Bats and throws right. 6-3, 195. Graduated from Scottsbluff, Neb., High School, 1963. Graduated from University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, 1968. Married Nancy Hoffman, Oct. 6, 1967. No children. Lives in Scottsbluff. Acquired—Signed by Scout Joe Bowman, July 3, 1966.

Neibauer was sidetracked in his climb to the big leagues in 1968 when he missed nearly all the season while on U. S. Army active duty . . . Then in spring training last year he won a job on the Atlanta staff, but he was exiled to the International League from May 23 to June 10 . . . He pitched his way back in a hurry by posting a 2-0 record and 1.35 earned run average . . . Neibauer made 29 relief appearances in his rookie year and won his first major league victory by pitching a single inning July 1st when a Sonny Jackson single in the tenth beat Cincinnati . . . Gary's longest stint was four and two-thirds innings . . . He had a 1.04 earned run average against Houston and 1.28 against Los Angeles . . . He played for Felix Millan's team, Caguas, in the Puerto Rican League in 1968-69 . . . In addition to his outstanding college career, Gary was a Legion baseball standout in Scottsbluff, and pitched two years in the Basin League . . . Atlanta made him its number 2 pick in the Special Phase of the June, 1966 draft.

Phil Niekro

Philip Henry Niekro. Born Apr. 1, 1939 at Blaine, Ohio. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 180. Graduated from Bridgeport, Ohio, High School, 1957. Married Nancy Lee Farrand, Aug. 6, 1966. Has two children: Philip Bruce, born Mar. 18, 1968; John Joseph, July 26, 1969. Lives in Atlanta. Acquired—Signed by Scout Bill Maughn, July 19, 1958.

Ninth in the Most Valuable Player balloting last year, Niekro won more games than any other pitcher except Tom Seaver. Mike Cuellar and Denny McLain, became the Braves first 20-game winner since 1965, pitched a one-hitter and a two-hitter, pitched four of Atlanta's seven shutouts and 21 of the team's 38 complete games, and led the team in earned run average, victories, starts, innings pitched and strikeouts . . . He was 15-7 for the first half of the season, becoming the majors' first pitcher to win 11, 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16 games, and had a 5-1 record in the crucial month of September . . . He had a 2.12 earned run average against the Western Division and beat Cincinnati six times, including back-to-back shutouts Apr. 13 and 19, and a one-hitter Sept. 5 that was the low-hit game of the Braves' four years in Atlanta, and victory No. 6 over the Reds in the division-winning game Sept. 30 . . . After leading the league in earned run average in 1967, then becoming only the second pitcher in history to lead the league in sacrifice hits in 1968, he showed further versatility by batting .211 in 1969, with 20 hits, including four doubles . . . He hit safely in his last five times at bat . . . An oddity in his 23-victory pitching is that he did not equal his '68 total of five shutouts . . . Rained-out games denied Phil two apparent victories; he led the Phillies 8-0 in the first game of a doubleheader when it was ended by rain after three innings July 29. Then on Aug. 12 he led the same Phillies 5-0 when rain again ended the game after three innings . . . Phil was 6-1 in June . . . He and Pat Jarvis each won the 50th victory of their careers last year . . . Phil's brother, Joe, pitched for Chicago and San Diego last year but was traded out of the league to Detroit . . . Phil beat him in Atlanta July 4, 1967, 8-3; Joe beat Phil at Chicago Apr. 23, 1968, 10-4, and July 13, 1969 at San Diego, 1-0; and Phil beat Joe in Atlanta Sept. 26, 1969, 10-4 . . . Born in Blaine, Ohio, Phil grew up in nearby Lansing and attended consolidated Bridgeport High, where he was an All-Ohio pitcher and an end on the football team . . . His teammate and next-door neighbor was John Havlicek, now of the Boston Celtics, and Bill Mazeroski hit a home run to hand Phil his only high school pitching loss . . . Phil was signed by Milwaukee after attending a tryout camp, and received a $500 bonus . . . Paul Richards helped Phil regain his confidence by making him throw the knuckleball more. In 1966, he was sent down to the minors because Atlanta had no catcher who could handle the knuckleball . . . Recalled by Atlanta, Phil was elated but found it untimely since he was planning to get married in Richmond. Bobby Bragan, then the Atlanta manager, gave Phil the weekend off and he and Nancy were married in Richmond the day after a night game in Philadelphia . . . The next year, he won the ERA title which Sandy Koufax had previously won for five years in a row . . . Phil finished his 21 complete games last year in an average time of two hours and 13 minutes, including a 1:39 job against St. Louis May 26, the shortest game in Atlanta Stadium history . . . Phil doesn't really throw a "knuckle" ball, but instead grips the ball with nails on his forefinger, middle finger and thumb . . . An expert on knuckleballers, Richards managed Dutch Leonard and Hoyt Wilhelm, as an Atlanta catcher in 1938 helped Leonard return to the big leagues, and devised an oversized mitt for Wilhelm at Baltimore . . . Phil's one-game strikeout high is 11, and his longest winning streak four in a row . . . He underwent an appendectomy Jan. 25 at Crawford Long Hospital in Atlanta.

Milt Pappas

Milton Steven Pappas. Born May 11, 1939 at Detroit, Mich. Bats and throws right. 6-3, 214. Graduated from Cooley High School, Detroit, 1957. Married Carole Tragge, Feb. 15, 1960. Has two children: Steven John, born Aug. 2, 1961; Michelle Anne, Jan. 13, 1963. Lives in Timonium, Md. Acquired—Traded by Cincinnati Reds with pitcher Ted Davidson and infielder Bob Johnson to Atlanta for pitchers Tony Cloninger and Clay Carroll and infielder Woody Woodward, June 12, 1968.

His first full season with Atlanta proved to be the most dismal of Milt's 13-year career in the majors . . . His two-year record for Atlanta is 16-18, and before starting the 1968 season at Cincinnati he belonged to an exclusive club of active pitchers who hadn't had a losing season . . . Originally signed by Baltimore scout Lou D'Annunzio, June 26, 1957, Milt was traded to Cincinnati with Jack Baldschun and Dick Simpson Dec. 9, 1965 for Frank Robinson . . . He pitched a one-hit game Sept. 2, 1964 against Minnesota and has six two-hitters to his credit . . . On Aug. 27, 1961 he hit two home runs and pitched a two-hit shutout over Minnesota . . . He led National League pitchers in fielding in 1966 . . . He has had a seven-game winning streak and 13 strikeouts in a game . . . He was the Opening Day pitcher for Baltimore in 1961 and 1964, and for Cincinnati in 1966, 1967, and 1968.

Robert Simpson Priddy. Born Dec. 10, 1939 at Pittsburgh, Pa. Bats and throws right. 6-1, 200. Graduated from McKees Rock High School, Pittsburgh, 1958. Married Marilyn Backer, Oct. 12, 1966. Has two children: Larry, age 7, by previous marriage; Danielle Ray, born July 25, 1969. Lives in San Mateo, Calif. Acquired—Traded by California Angels to Atlanta for pitcher Robert Compton and outfielder John Rivers, Sept. 9, 1969.

Sent to the minor leagues last year for the first time since 1965, Priddy caught on with the Braves at the end of last season, pitched in relief in the last game of the season, and will try this spring to earn a regular job again in the majors . . . He was an infielder in the Pittsburgh farm system before turning to pitching . . .

Priddy continued

Pittsburgh traded him to San Francisco with Bob Burda for Del Crandall Feb. 11, 1965 . . . San Francisco sent him to Washington along with Cap Peterson for Mike McCormick Dec. 13, 1966 . . . Washington sent him to Chicago with Les Narum and Tim Cullen for Dennis Higgins, Steve Jones and Ron Hansen Feb. 13, 1968 . . . Last season he went to California May 16 for Bobby Knoop, then was sent to Hawaii July 7.

Ron Reed

Ronald Lee Reed. Born Nov. 2, 1942 at LaPorte, Ind. Bats and throws right. 6-6, 215. Graduated from LaPorte High School, 1961. Attended University of Notre Dame, South Bend, Ind. Single. Lives in LaPorte. Acquired—Signed by President and General Manager John McHale, July 17, 1965.

A two-sport athlete after his undergraduate days at Notre Dame, Reed knew he had made the right decision in leaving Detroit and pro basketball when he won his first six starts of the 1968 season and made the All-Star team, and then posted a sensational 10-3 second half record last season on the way to 18 victories for the division champion Braves . . . During his first full season in professional baseball in 1966, Ron climbed from the lowest Atlanta farm club to the major leagues, all in one year. The following year he won 14 games and led the league in innings pitched at Richmond, as Luman Harris' team won the IL pennant . . . He pitched a three-hitter in his first start in 1968 at San Francisco Apr. 29, and he had a two-hitter May 19, 1968 against New York . . . Ron slipped to a 3-6 record in the second half of his rookie year, but was practically unstoppable after the All-Star game last season as a sophomore . . . Ron pitched for Notre Dame and averaged 20 points a game for the basketball team . . . An offer of a two-year contract before the 1967 season lured Ron away from pro basketball . . . He was the first Braves rookie ever to play in the All-Star game . . . Last season on his way to 18 victories he was tagged for two tape measure homers, when Willie Smith of Chicago hit the first homer into the upper level at Atlanta Stadium, and Willie Stargell cleared the Forbes Field roof at Pittsburgh . . . Ron's 13 strikeouts Sept. 27 vs. San Diego missed the club's Atlanta record of 14 by Denver Lemaster.

George Heard Stone, Jr. Born July 9, 1946 at Ruston, La. Bats and throws left. 6-3, 195. Graduated from Ruston High School, 1964. Attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, Ruston. Single. Lives in Ruston. Acquired—Signed by Scout Mel Didier, June 19, 1966.

His first full season in the majors was one of ups and downs for Stone, who won his first six decisions, but later lost six games in a row . . . He was in and out of the starting rotation . . . He was 3-0 after six innings of relief against San Francisco on Opening Night, Cincinnati Apr. 13 and Houston Apr. 16 . . . He balked home the winning run June 23 against Los Angeles, however, and suffered through his six straight losses July 12-Aug. 9 . . . He followed that with four wins in his last six decisions . . . Houston found him mighty tough; he had a 5-1 record and 1.03 earned run average against the Astros, with one of the wins coming at Houston June 28 before 33,331, when he and Houston starter Don Wilson collided on the first base line to trigger a mild Braves-Astros melee . . . George's only loss to Houston, in fact, came June 18 when Denver Lemaster hit a home run to win his own game and beat the Braves for the first time ever . . . George was 8-2 in his first pro season, and then was in the right place in the right time the next season, attending Georgia State College in Atlanta in May when Atlanta developed a critical need for a lefthander. There was George just a few blocks away in school . . . Two seasons later, he was a full-time Atlanta pitcher after starting only 35 minor league games . . . George and relief ace Cecil Upshaw are third cousins; their great-grandmothers, Louisa and Kelley Abbott of Spearsville, La., were sisters . . . George was an All-State basketball and baseball player in Louisiana . . . He and Cecil both hit their first major league home run last year . . . George's one-game strikeout high is seven.

Bob Tillman

James Robert Tillman. Born Mar. 24, 1937 at Nashville, Tenn. Bats and throws right. 6-4, 210. Graduated from Litton High School, Nashville, 1956. Attended Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, and Middle Tennessee State University, Murfreesboro. Married Dolores Cirillo, Oct. 5, 1963. Has one child, Joel Robert, born Oct. 20, 1964. Lives in Nashville. Acquired—Traded by New York Yankees with pitcher Dale Roberts for infielder Bobby Cox, Dec. 7, 1968.

Only Hank Aaron provided the Braves with more home run heroics than Bob Tillman last year . . . Bob's two-run homer beat New York at Shea Stadium May 13 . . . After Rico Carty and Bob Aspromonte hit back-to-back homers in the ninth June 20 against San Francisco, Tillman won the game with another homer in the twelfth . . . Four days later against Los Angeles, Bob's first National League grand slam beat the Dodgers . . . Then July 30 at Philadelphia in the first game of a doubleheader he became only the eleventh player in Braves history to hit three homers in a game. Aaron hits his 537th that night to pass Mickey Mantle on the all-time list, and Felipe Alou also homered, with Grant Jackson the victim of all five blasts . . . Tillman's first homer cleared the left field roof at Connie Mack Stadium, and the third went over the 410-foot sign in centerfield . . . Traded by Boston just before its dramatic pennant drive in 1967, and denied the eventual World Series check, Tillman got into 86 games for Atlanta in 1968 but considered retirement at spring training last year . . . President Bill Bartholomay talked him out of it . . . After high school graduation, Bob attended Georgia Tech briefly on a freshman basketball scholarship, later lettered at Middle Tennessee State and signed his first contract with Boston scout George Digby, Jan. 10, 1958 . . . He was sold to New York Aug. 8, 1967 and traded to Atlanta by the Yankees Dec. 7, 1967 along with Dale Roberts for Bobby Cox . . . Bob, who had his 2000th big league at bat last year, has hit three grand slams, three pinch-homers, had two homers in a game in 1964, and has had four hits in a game twice.

Cecil UpshawP*No. 34

Cecil Lee Upshaw, Jr. Born Oct. 22, 1942 at Spearsville, La. Bats and throws right. 6-6, 185. Graduated from Bossier City, La., High School, 1960. Graduated from Centenary College, Shreveport, La., Bachelor of Science in Business, 1965. Married Jeanne Louise Yearwood, Jan. 11, 1963. Has two children: Carole Leslie, born Aug. 22, 1963; Cecil Lee III, Dec. 30, 1966. Lives in Shreveport. Acquired—Signed by Scout Mel Didier, Mar. 3, 1964.

Upshaw has been one of the National League's best relief pitchers for the last two years . . . In 1968 he saved 11 games and won eight, finishing sixth among 50 National League firemen in the Sporting News system which awards a point for a relief win or save . . . Last year Cecil moved up to third place in the league with six wins and 25 saves, ranking behind Wayne Granger of Cincinnati (9 and 27) and Fred Gladding of Houston (4 and 29) . . . Upshaw has never started a major league game . . . In 1960, Scholastic Magazine named Upshaw a high school All-America basketball player . . . He made All-Louisiana in both basketball and baseball . . . He went on to a fine career in both sports at Centenary College . . . As a senior he ranked among the nation's leading collegiate scorers in basketball, and he led the baseball team in hitting and earned run average . . . Cecil had a base hit in his first time at bat in the majors . . . Last May 25, he earned a save in relief of his cousin, George Stone, and hit his first major league homer off Dick Farrell in a 4-1 "Bat Day" win over Philadelphia before 35,172 . . . Cecil wrote a weekly column for a Shreveport newspaper last season, and spent one week in January as general manager of Atlanta's farm club in his hometown . . . The former GM resigned suddenly, and Cecil filled in until a replacement could be found . . . Upshaw's one-game strikeout high is six.

Charlie VaughanP*No. 61

Charles Wayne Vaughan. Born Oct. 6, 1947 at Mercedes, Tex. Bats right and throws left. 6-2, 190. Graduated from Brownsville, Tex. High School, 1965. Attended Texas Southmost College, Brownsville. Married Carol Elaine Carnesi, Jan. 31, 1970. No. children. Lives in Brownsville. Acquired—Signed by Scout Al LaMacchia, June 24, 1965.

A non-roster player, Vaughan was an all-star pitcher in the Florida rookie league in 1965 and a Braves scout reported: "You better have a plane ready to take Charlie to Atlanta in about three years" . . . He beat that timetable, pitching in the majors as an 18-year-old in 1966, a year later, and beating Houston, 12-2 Sept. 3, 1966 . . . Joey Jay, as a 17-year-old in 1953, was the only Braves pitcher in recent history to win a big league game at an earlier age . . . Charlie also got a base hit in that game against Houston . . . Injuries have plagued him his whole career: a broken collarbone in a high school accident, an injured right arm after catching it in machinery while in high school, back pains in spring training in 1965, a hernia operation in Atlanta in May, 1968, surgery for removal of bone chips from his left elbow in Houston in October, 1968, and a sore arm most of last season.

Hoyt Wilhelm

James Hoyt Wilhelm. Born July 26, 1923 at Huntersville, N. C. Bats and throws right. 6-0, 190. Graduated from Cornelius, N. C., High School, 1942. Married Peggy Reeves, Sept. 19, 1951. Has three children: Patti, born Nov. 11, 1953; Pam, May 12, 1955; Jim, Sept. 24, 1957. Lives in Columbus, Ga. Acquired—Purchased by Atlanta from California Angels on waivers, Sept. 8, 1969.

It would be hard for a relief pitcher to help a team more than Wilhelm helped the Braves last season . . . He won two games, saved four, pitched a seventh time in middle relief of a game saved by Cecil Upshaw, and was sent out by Luman Harris in the last regular season game to receive a standing ovation from the Atlanta Stadium fans . . . Hoyt was waived out of the American League too late to be eligible for the Championship Series with New York . . . This year Hoyt will become the first pitcher in major league history to appear in 1,000 games . . . Among relief pitchers, he has the most games (937), victories (117), saves (210), innings pitched (1,743) and strikeouts (2,266) in relief, and the best relief ERA (2.45) . . . Yet the great knuckleballer pitched ten years in the minor leagues, was twice sold for the $20,000 waiver price 12 years ago, and was given up in the 1968 expansion draft . . . Born on a farm, Hoyt used the knuckleball even in high school and sandlot baseball . . . He pitched only one year at Mooresville, N. C., before three years of military service intervened . . . A staff sergeant, he was awarded a Purple Heart after being wounded at the Battle of the Bulge. That battle took place in Europe 25 years ago last month . . . Hoyt returned to become a 20-game winner twice at Mooresville, and he eventually won 107 minor league victories, but he wasn't called to the majors until New York bought him for $2,500 in 1952 and Leo Durocher converted him to a relief pitcher . . . He won 15, lost 3, became the only rookie ever to lead a major league in both percentage (.833) and earned run average, pitched in 71 games to set a big league record for rookies, and was second in the Rookie of the Year voting to Joe Black . . . In the 1954 World Series sweep of Cleveland, he relieved Ruben Gomez in the third game and retired the last five batters in a row . . . Wilhelm was traded to St. Louis for Whitey Lockman Feb. 26, 1957, then sold to Cleveland Sept. 21, 1957 and sold to Baltimore Aug. 23, 1958 . . . He became a starting pitcher in 1958 and in his ninth major league start pitched a 1-0 no-hitter vs. New York Sept. 20, 1958 . . . Don Larsen and Bobby Shantz were the Yankees pitchers that day. Gus Triandos homered for the only run. Second baseman Billy Gardner threw out Norm Siebern on a close play in the eighth. Bobby Richardson opened the ninth flying out to Jim Busby. Enos Slaughter lined out, and after trying to cross up Hoyt but bunting foul, Hank Bauer flew out to end the game . . . The next year Hoyt threw a one-hitter May 22, 1959, against the same Yankees, with Jerry Lumpe getting the only hit . . . Wilhelm led the AL in earned run average in 1959, becoming the only pitcher ever to lead both leagues in ERA . . . He started only one game in 1961 and was traded to Chicago with Ron Hansen, Pete Ward and Dave Nicholson for Luis Aparicio and Al Smith Jan. 14, 1963 . . . He made his last start Sept. 7, 1963 against Minnesota. He left after eight innings, and the Twins won the game in the twelfth . . . In Chicago Hoyt ran off a great string of ERAs—1.99, 1.81, 1.66, 1.31, and 1.73 . . . On July 24, 1968 he pitched his 907th game, breaking Cy Young's record of 906 appearances which had stood since 1911 . . . Hoyt was selected by Kansas City in the American League expansion draft Oct. 15, 1968 and traded by Kansas City to California for Dennis Paepke and Ed Kirkpatrick Dec. 11, 1968 . . . Wilhelm has averaged about two innings an appearance and has never pitched more relief innings in a year than the 159 he worked as a rookie in 1952 . . . Relief pitching was so long overlooked that saves became official statistics only last season, but analysis of Hoyt's career shows he had a personal high of 27 saves in 1964 . . . He started 52 games in the American League, none in the National League . . . His AL earned run average is 2.19, but he's 3.04 in the NL . . . He returned to the NL last year for the first time in 12 years . . . He set the major league record for consecutive errorless games by a pitcher with 246 from 1963 to 1968 . . . He hit a home run in his first time at bat in the majors and tripled the next year, but he hasn't had a homer or triple since . . . He pitched 363 times before getting his first start in the big leagues, and he has pitched exactly that many times, 363, since last last start . . . In his book, My Turn at Bat, Ted Williams says the five toughest pitchers he ever faced were Whitey Ford, Eddie Lopat, Bob Lemon, Bob Feller and Hoyt Wilhelm . . . Over his career Hoyt has pitched for, in order, Durocher, Bill Rigney, Fred Hutchinson, Kerby Farrell, Bobby Bragan, Joe Gordon, Paul Richards, Luman Harris, Billy Hitchcock, Al Lopez, Eddie Stanky, Les Moss, Lopez again, Rigney again, Lefty Phillips and Harris again . . . Just eleven games away from 1,000, Hoyt says, "The next thousand are going to be a lot easier."

Earl Williams

OF - 1B

Earl Craig Williams, Jr. Born July 14, 1948 at Newark, N. J. Bats and throws right. 6-5, 195. Graduated from Montclair, N. J., High School, 1965. Attended Ithaca, N. Y., College. Single. Lives in Montclair, N. J. Acquired—Signed by Scout John Russell, Aug. 26, 1965.

After his 33 homers, 107 runs batted in and .340 average at Greenwood in the Western Carolinas League last year, Williams was Sport Magazine's Baseball subject in a "Best Prospects of the 1970's" series on professional sports . . . Williams had never attended spring training or played a full season until 1969, and he credits Braves farm system bosses Eddie Robinson and Bill Lucas, and his Greenwood manager, Eddie Haas, for transforming him into an improved hitter last spring . . . Prior to the transformation, Williams always remained in classes at Ithaca College rather than go to spring training . . . Williams was the second outstanding first baseman at Greenwood in two years, eclipsing the home run and RBI marks Jim Breazeale set there in 1968 . . . Earl set the league RBI record but missed the final week of the season because of military training. During that final week, Dalton Renfro of Shelby broke Earl's mark and finished the year with 109 . . . Earl hit eight homers in one seven-day period, and two grand slams . . . Honey Russell, who signed Earl, also signed Joe Torre . . . Earl's home town of Montclair, N. J., is also the hometown of moon walker Buzz Aldrin.
